HOPKINSVILLE BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

1880

LAWYERS.

J with Petree & Littell. W. A. GOODWIN, Attorney at Law

BUIR & BRO., Main Street, over Hender. BREATHITT & PATNE, Rapper Block, op H. A. PHELPS & SON, Hopper Block, ros

G. A. CHAMPLIN, Webber House, roar of WINFREE & McLARROLL, Main Street, RITTER & STPERT, next to Court House

Office House.

LANDES & CLARK, Main street, opposit JOAR C. BRASHER, Attorney at Law, FRIAND & SERREE, Main street, over Bosch & Latham's new store.

DOCTORS. F. H. CLARK, office with Dr. R. W. Gaine

W. F. PATTON, M. D., office Southe P. W. DRY DEN, office up stairs, next d

L. Backner's drug stere. MILLINERS: A St. H I MARTIN, opposite Phonix He

M to M E RUDGEES, Nashville Spre JEWELERS.

JAR L. WAHL, Main street, Ropkinsvill

G. H. BRAND-IN, Court St., Campbell Williams old stand PHOTOGRAPHERS.

CLARENCE ANDERSON, Henry Block, ex DRUGGISTS

GHAT & BUCKNER, Red Front, Ma GIRL & GARNER, Nata Street. Rophin

DRY GOODS. GANT & DAVISON, Main St., next door

HONKET JOHN MOAYON, corner ville and Virginia Streets.

G. W. Wiley, Main Street, opposite E. H. GROCERS.

P H.K CANST.ER, Pelton's old stand, Corr.

R. M. ANDERSON. Court Street two doors PAYNE & YOUNG, Nashville Street, near

L. Bavin, Virginia 6t., hetween Cent.

S. H. HARRISON, corner Main and Spring FURNITURE AND COFFIN

A. W. PYLE, up stairs, Honry Block,

GEO. O. THOMPSON, E. side Main Street up stairs, Thompson & Coleman's building RESTAURANTS.

ST. GEORGE, G W. Hall, Enssellville, St. BUILDERS & CARPENTERS.

J. B. WILLIAMOUN & SON, Carpente LIVERY STABLES

BANNER STABLE, Bridge St., near Prince B ton Bridge, J. M. Hipkins, Proprietor. T. SMITH, corner of Virginia and Spring

JOE WEILL, livery, feed and sale

OFFICIAL DIRECTORY.

John B. Grace Judge, Cadu, hy., Nat Gai ther Clark, Hopkinsville, Ky. Court meet first Monday in March and September. QUARTRLY COURT. A. V. Long Judge. Muets last Montayl n January, April, July and October.

COUNTY COURT. A. V. Long Judge, Joab Brasher Atterney. Mosts first Monday in every month.

CITY COURT. COUNTY OFFICES. John W. Breathits, Clerk; P. F. Rogers, Sheriff; A. B. Long, Juiler.

Agents WANTED

To Make Money.

Cole a separation of the series of the

THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.

VOLUME II. HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1880.

NUMBER 51.

BUSINESS CARDS.

DR. W. M. FUQUA.

Office. Hopper Block. Residence, corner Virginia and Broad street. Janl ly.]

COOK & RICE

CITY BREWERY.

EVANSVILLE, INDIANA No. 214, upper Serento St.

J. H. TUNKS.

BLACKSMITH

THE ONLY CURE.

We say positively, and without fear of con ridiction, that Day's Kidney Fail is the onl utallible cure for form of Kidney disease. I a the best remedy yet discovered for this com-daint, and more effectual is its operatio has any other treatment. By using faith mily and persistently no case will be found a STRONGLY EN RSED. character, intelligence, and responsibility four book, "How a Life was Sayed," g the history of this new discovery, and reveney of unoit cemarkable cures, seat Write for it.

"a Kilmar Pada are sold by druggla's, or eases by mail (free of postage) on reof their price. Regular, $200, special, stinkte case of long standing, $2.50;
ren's $1.50. Address DAY'S KIDNEY
CO., Tolesto, O. CAUTION less Kilney Pads now seek.

BEST IN THE WORLD! JRCHE

SALERATUS

TOO INQUISITIVE.

A young lad rang the door bell,

A young lad rang the door born,
Of a newly married pair—
"Don't you want a bay?" he said,
Siyiy pulled at his hair,
"Want a boy? she echood;
Why, you impulent scapegroes!"
And she gave the door a slam
In that youth's astonished face.

Your dainty note lies before me, And its contents have filled me with grief; Nor you know that I fairly adore thee, That of idols, I hold you the chief. Yet you say it is best that we sever The ties which have bound us, and bo Henceforward strangers forever, Through time and eteraty.

WITHHELD.

You return all the presents I gare you— Pletures, and jewels and ring; The numocriess letters I sent, too, And sougs which you've not heart to sing You say that it pains you, this parting, Far more than mere words can express; As you write, the tear drops are starting, And you're filled with the direct distress.

Yes' you've returned all the jewels and let ters:

The music and pictures—all trush:

You request lobes, and fetters

That bound you, I break—though 'tis rash

The giffs you return are all worthless;

The choicest and best you retain.

What is it? A gift that is priceless. Oh give me my beart back again.)

Resolutions Passed by the Church Session at Cassy Station.

Whereas, it has pleased God in his inscutable wisdom to call from his labor on earth to his rest in Heaven our dearly beloved brother J. V Wintree, therefore, resolved:

First, that in our great loss we bow in humble submission to the divine will, fully persuaded that the Lord doeth all things well. Swoudly, that in the death of brot er Winfree we realize that we have sustained a great loss, while his pure spirit, freed from earth's crowding care rests in the full fruition of an eternal gain.

Thirdly, that the church session has loss an efficient elder, the congre-cation, an exemplary member, and has loss an efficient elder, the congre-gation an exemplary member, and society, a pure and good man, and his bereaved family, a devoted hus-band, father, brother and relative. Fourthy, that we will ever checish his memory and strive to imitate his christian example, that we will ex-tend to his sorrow stricken family our kindest asympthy is, their afflicour kindest sympathy in their afflic

Fifthly, that a copy of these reso Intions be spread upon the minutes, a copy be sent to the family of the deceased and a copy be sent to each of the county papers for publication.

"Let Politics Alone."

A real clean, nice-tooking old couple were at the Union Depot yesterday to take a train going South. The husband was nearly seventy years old, and pretty lively, and the wife was only a year or two behind him, with a voice that meant business every time she opened her mouth. There was considerable political talk around the depot, and the old man at once came intercated.

I've been over in Canada in the woods for the last two weeks and hain't heerd a thing, he explained hain't heerd a thing, he explained to see if he had gone; and a temper, when it is not controlled, often creates

Yes, replied one of the men.
Many riots and knock downs?
Thousands of them.
I used to be the worst man around the polis you ever see, continued the old gent as he spit on his hands. I've seen the time it took four Cons-

What kinds
All kinds.
Well you let politics alone and come into the waiting room.
Purty soon. So they had riots and knock-downs, eh? Lord! don't I wish I had been around.
Peter! called the wife.

Yes, I'm here, I suppose the candi-dates set up the drinks, didn't they.

Great snakes! But I wish I'd be over here. Take it long about forty years ago, and after I had three drinks down it took the whole Whig party to hold me. My great hold was cleaning out the voting place and walking off with the ballot box.

and walking off with the ballot box.
Peter, I want you? called the wife.
Yes, Nancy. Well, which side—
Peter, was choked off right here.
Nancy got hold of his collar and lifted his heels off the floor, whirled him around, and headed him for the waiting room with the remark:
After you have lived with me another forty years, you'll learn that when I say Peter I don't mean Paul!
The idea of you standing out here The idea of you standing out here talking politics when we've got to look around for a piece of bed-cord to tie that old satchel up or lose half

When they came out to take the train the old man had his eye out, and seeing the man who had answered his questions he asked.

Who did you say was 'lected?

He was yet on the last word when the wife brought her bandbox down on top of his head with the exclama-

Shet up.
That "shet" him. He looked back once with a sorrowful, injured air, but she punched him in the back with the box, and he humbly entered the car and was driven into the seat on the next side to the dark wall.

Almost young again.

me with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy nactive condition of the whole ays tem; headache, nervous prostrations, and was almost helpless. Ne physi-cians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to

GREEK MEETS GREEK. A Most Remarkable Family.

A Book Agent Tackles a Boarding House Keeper

(New Orleans Times.)

Yesterday morning a man with the aspect of a book agent walking swiftly up Magazine street until he came opposite a house where a red-headed woman with a long nose and her sleeves rolled up was washing the

Is this a boarding house, madam? he said gently, as he leaned his el-bows on the fence and looked over in Yes, sir, replied the woman.

Can I obtain desirable board her t a reasonable rate?
Yes, sir, there is no better house in the city!

Can I see the landlady? I am the landlady, sir.
Ah! indeed I have often heard of any old maids in the house who wear gindet curls and have pet parrots that sician who played on the flate and walked with a crutch, and when the babies became quiet on the one side, the infernal cuss on the o-her would extant. As he had been sick some

Yes, of course I do, replied the woman, getting angry, what else do you want to know

What prompted me to ask you the question was the fact that every oarding house falls into the error o giving its boarders tough liver tor breakfast, which is something I deest. When a man gets up in the morning he doesn't feel like trying morning he doesn't feel like trying to eat a spring mattress, consequently I make it a noint to hunt up a house where the boarders are not so cursed. A man can stand codfish balls very well, but human nature, madam, is far from being equal to tough liver three times a day. It you recollect, I said before, I am very particular where I board. Madam, are you a married woman?

Yes, I am and tired of answering your questions. If you don't want when it is not controlled, often create a great deal of misery and no end of divorce suits. I've no doubt that, when irritated by household duties and cares, that you often give your husband a sound rebuking, and if he is a prematurely bald headed man, it l've seen the time it took four tables to hold me.

Peter, what are you doing here? asked the old lady as she suddenly appeared.

Finding out about politics.

What kind?

All kinds.

Well you let politics alone and waluable work entitled "Home Made to waluable work enti This excellent volume I will sell for the sum of one dollar and fifty cents.

As I previously remarked, you cannot be blamed for your temper. Every red-headed woman with a long the sum of the sum of the sum of the sum of the large temper. eye, has a sour temper, but if you will only follow the suggestions laid a paradise, and _____ If you don't leave here, you impudent puppy, I'll call the police.

want you to-Bear in mind, madam, that no matter how ugly you are, a good disposi-tion makes any woman angelic,

Ain't you going to leave, you despicable villian, you bandy-legged—
Although you are shaped like a lopsided triangle, and have freekles on your face as large as a ginger

The next instant a shrick heard, and the book agent was stretched flat on the pavement with a bucket of soapsads on top of him and a small dog snapping at his beels.

Points on the Weather.

"I have kissed it for its muddy," crowled the man who sat down on the pavement when he didn't want to. "It's a snow bawl," grinned the big boy who had rolled his little comhim cry about it.
"All hail the new Signal Service use in the family.—A lady, in Providence, R. I

Mrs. W. J. Luck, of Evansville, accidently caught her clothing on fire while alone in the house and was burned to death.

Inventors and Patentees should send for instructions, terms, references, &c., to Edson Brothers, beliefters of Patents, Washington, D. C., who furnish the same without charge. Edson Brothers is a well-known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1866, man," said the compositor .- Arcldest of a family remarkable for the longevity of its members. Of the Rockwell family there are eight brothers and sisters yet living. They are: Louis Rockwell, nged 102; Abrham Rockwell, 95; Mrs. Ashie Wells, 82; Miss Sallie Rockwell, 79; Mrs. Phoebe Gainsford, 75; Mrs. Katharine Brown, 73; and Mrs. Lucinda Valentine, 70. The aggregate age of this family is 643 years, or an average of over 80 years each. In spite of the fact that he has many wealthy relations, old Lewis Rockwell has been thrown upon the town, and is now nearly the only Rockwell has been thrown upon the town, and is now nearly the only "town charges" in the county. Lewis Cornelius, who died some years ago, was a connection of the Rockwell lamily. He was at one time the largest Brady's foot had not been exhibited men of New Orleans, but now I have an ocular demonstration of the fact.

"Do you wish to secure board here? inquired the woman, blushing and looking pleased

"Wall best of the woman and industry of the woman and in America, being considerably that the celebrated Daniel Lambert, Barnam's giant. Mr. Cornellooking pleased

Wall best of the woman are entered upon that the line' dimensions are entered upon that the land a very small hole to crawl out of, owking pleased tims' dimensions are entered upon that a very small hele to crawl out of but he was equal to the emergency well, I reckon I do. Have you office at Mil ord, Pike county, as fol the procured a 1-2 ibch rule of stand any old maids in the house who wear lows: Height, 6 feet; circumference below waist, 8 feet 2 inches; circumferof people? Are there any babies here who are always having the colic and howling enough to make a man a maniae? Madam, I am very particular where I board, as the last place I stopped at, my room was situated between that of a young woman who had a pair of twin babies and a musician who played on the flute and situated and situated weight, it is a pair of twin babies and a musician who played on the flute and situated between the color and the col be thumping over the floor or playing on the flute, until at last I could at and it no longer. Are any of these boarding house pests stopping with you?

No, sir, none but quiet single men board here.

Ah, that is surely a fine recommendation, but do you set a fine table?

Yes, of course I do, replied the woman, getting angry, what else do you want to know

As he had been sick some (Alta Californian.)

An awful case of the consequence of relusing a young man's honorable love is reported on the West side. A really nice young man fell in love with a handsome girl, the only daughter of a handsome and well preserved widow of thirty-eight, and offered her marriage. She ridiculed him because he was thirty, and said he was old enough to be her father, and so on, and with her taunts goodynous want to know

Another Washington.

(Little Rock, (Ark) Gazotte ! James Washington, - colored, ourse, was elected Justice of the Peace in Peyatt township. Yester day he came to town for his commission. Entering the Secretary of State's office, he advanced to where

Mr. Frolich sat and asked: Is yer name Secretary ob State? I'm the Secretary of State.

I wish you'd gin me my commis-ion, please. What commission? Fur Jestice ob de Peace. You'll have to see the County Clerk and qualify before I can issue a Hew does yer qualify, boss? Why, swear that you are qualified discharge the duties of the office. Mr. Washington went down and called upon the County Clerk. When the oath was administered he swallowed it as though such a diet would agree with him. Course I ken

Sign the paper. I'se got the rhoumatiz in my han write before you can get your commis-

Are you going to sign the paper? No, I isn't; I ain't no writin' mars ter. If yer want my name signed sign it yerself. Ruther den make such a great miration 'bont de com-mission, I won't take it, and he went away. It is an actual fact that he couldn't counterfeit a single letter of the alphabet.

Hindoo Female Genius.

bous land, the pictures of two Maori —natives of that country—a boy and a girl—and the latter had her back A Hindoo young woman died two years ago, whom English critics praise in extravagant terms. Though at her death, she was only twenty-two years old, yet the Saturday Repraise in extravegant terms. Though at her death, she was only twenty- two years old, yet the Saturday Review had pronounced her the most promising living reason of letters. promising living woman of letters."
It compared her to George Elliot, who, at twenty, had written only a few essays, with George Sand, who at that age had written nothing; with Madame De Stael, who at the same age was known only as a brilliant talker; with Mrs. Browaing, who was, at twenty, only a promising was, at twenty, only a promising writer. "This Hindeo girl, at twenty, had not only done good work, but had done an immense quantity of when one of them said:

When one of them said: it, and in four languages." She wrote in English and in French as well as in her native tongue, and had translated from the Sanscrit into English one of the most famous religion with a dranken driver,

"There snow God," says slob Ingersoll. "Never mind that; its my rain next," smiled Jupiter Pluyins.

"I thaw't it wouldn't stay long when I got a shine on it," was old Sol's contribution.

"I have kiesel it for the stay long when I got a shine on it," was old Sol's contribution.

"I have kiesel it for the stay long when I got a shine on it," was old Sol's contribution.

"Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us ban by all other remedies co Its success in Georgia and other States is beyond precedent in the annals of physic. Thousands of certificates so often."

"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very casy. I used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and saved the dectors bills. Three dellars worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two handred dellars spiece to keep sick the same time." from women everywhere pour in upon they proprietor. The attention of prominent medical men is aroused in behalf of this wonderful compound, and the most successful practition use it. If women suffer hereafter the same time"
"Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter."

Justice Strong of the Supreme Court has resigned.

use it. It women suffer hereafter it will be their own fault. Famale Regulator is propared and sold by Dr. J.
Bradfield, Atlanta, Ga., and may be bought for $1.20 per bottle at any respectable Drag Store in the Union.
For sale by Hopper & Son.

A LADY'S FOOT. Editing a Paper

A dispatch from Honesdale, Pa., to the Philadelphin Times says: Lewis Rockwell, aged 102 years, lives in a rickety old house in Pike county, Pa., not far from this place. He is the cidest of a family remarkable for the land was concluded on Monday. The land was concluded to the land was concluded the land was concluded the land was concluded to the land was concluded the land was concluded to the land was concluded the land was concluded to the land was concluded to the land was concluded the land was concluded to the land was concluded to the land was concluded the land was If it contains much polifical matter people wont have it.

If the type if large it don't contain much reading matter.

If we publish telegraphic reports folks asy they are nothing but lies.

If we omit them they say we have no enterprise, or appress them for political effect. damn us for giving selections.

If we give selections, people say we are lazy for not writing more and giving them what they have not read in some other paper.

If we give a complimentary notice we are consured for being partial.

If we don't all hands say we are a great hose. If we remain in our office, attending to our own business, folks say we are too proud to mingle with other ard guage and proceeded to measur his client's foot in the presence of th If we go out, they say we dont attend to our business.

If we dont pay up promptly they say we are not to be trusted.

If we pay up promptly, they say we stole the money.—[Hobort Jour-

Where Banging Began.

the reply.

And were you sick?

Yes, awfully sick.

And was your husband good ther, but the jury were satisfied that the foot was smaller than the hole in the bridge, and they gave a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $1.000.

A Jilted Lover's Bevenge
[Alta Californian.]

An awful case of the censequence of relusing a young man's honorable love is reported on the West aid.

A really nice young man fell in love with a handsome girl, the only daughter of a handsome and will begin at once.

The owner of the dog paid down the money, as he was afraid the other fellow might exasperate him if he hid him because he was thirty, and said he was old enough to be her father, and so on, and with her taunts gonded him to such a pitch of frenzy that he swore he would be learfully revenged. Accordingly he proposed to and married the wretched girl's mother.

Now that wretched girl has to wear stout leather boots two sizes too large for her, and go to bed at 9 P. M., and eschew the theater, chosolate caramels, ice-cream, and in fact everything else that makes one's life worth living for. Her step father's nominal object being that when she grows up she may be as splendially matured a woman as her mother, the compliment implied in this inducing the mother to second him enthusiast leally.

When a young man comes round

Don't buy a piano for your daughters, while your sons need a plow.

Don't let your horse be seen standing much at the beer saloon; it don't look right.

the mother to second him enthusiastleally.

When a young man comes round to see that wretched girl her steptather bounces him down the front steps, throws his hat after him, and teils the wretched girl that the young man is not a fit companion for her,
and that he is as felicitious for her future as he would be for that of his own child and altogether in the kindest manner possible he makes that wretched girl even wish she were dead as many as a hundred times a day.

Don't become security for him who sits for the sheriff. day. Let al' other beautiful girls who are often tempted to retuse the matrimo-nial offer of eligible young men be warned by her unhappy fate. Buy a farm wagon, before a fine car

No Wonder He Failed.

It has often been a subject of won-derment to us where our pretty girls got the notion from of combing their front hair down over their foreheads He don't live in Galveston now, but he used to. He went into the in-terior and applied to the School Board to teach school. They exam-Board to teach school. They examined him, and were surprised to learn that Cuba was a South American republican republic He also startled them somewhat in geography and history, and, as for arithmetic, he bankrupted the whole numeral system. His proposition to teach was laid on the table. He subsequently however, made a motion for a new trial, which was granted. After the second examination a friend met him, and said:

I hear you failed on the second and cutting off the ends so as to make the inch and a half of hair which they keep hanging down nearly to their cyclrows, and which is irresistibly associated in our mind with an imper-fectly sheared mule's tale. The mysfectly sheared nule's rate. The mystery is solved to our satisfaction hat night as as we dropped into Dr. Jackson's. The Doctor received from New Zealand yesterday among quite a variety of 'erns and mosses, and other curosities from that semi-bar-land and the same-bar-land and the same

No wonder I failed. They asked me the very same question they did before.—Galveston News.

Stage Episode in Nevada.

(Providence (B. L.) Journal.]

Traveling by stage coach in Nevada s frequently anlivened by incidents, for instance Freid and Moody sat in For lustance Freid and Moody sat in the same seat of a crowded coach on the Bodie Line. Moody surely said that Freid was taking more than a fair share of space, and, when Freid replied that he couldn't move any further, cooly shot him. "I never take any nonsense," he replied, and Freid fell dead from the seat. The driver got down from the box and told the murderer to get out. A defiant refusal and the flourish of a pistol was the answer. The driver How did you like Europe? It's too splendid for snything, was

COLUMBUS. GA., Nov. 26, 1877.

DR. C. J. MOFFETT—Dear Sir—

Since learning its value, I always keep yeur Teathina (Teething Powders) in my house, and consider it as musical chords of the heart whose vibrations are so melodious, so tender and so touching in the evening of their lives.—[K. M. 1. News. whites, suppressed and irregular menses and nterine obstructions, of every kind, are being daily cured by Dr. J. Budfield's Female Regulater,

Clerk City Council.

Columnus, tra., Feb. 6, 1878.

Dr. C. J. Moffett.—Dear Doctor—We can commend your Teething (Teething Powders) as the most satisfactory prescription we ever used for the losse bowels or eruptions of our children. They have saved us many dollars in dectors' bills.

Yours truly, B. T. Hatcher, (of firm of McGence & Hatcher, Warehouse and Commission Merchants).

For sale by Gish & Gather.

Clerk City Council.

THE SOUTH KENTUCKIÁN

ADVERTISING RATE.

mn, per year es locals, ten cents per line.

EXCHANGE SCINTILLATIONS

The tariff question is now in the Editing a paper is a pleasant busi-tess, if you like it. If it contains much political matter hands of the Hawesville Plaintesler and the Cannelton News. When they get through with it there will of the control of the country of the

When we go hunting now we fully realize the inconvenience of living in a country town. We can no longer dazzle the eyes of our wife as a mighty Nimrod from the fact that there are no stally where we can purchase the gam, to take home—Breckenridge News.

The Guthrie Debating Club Friday night will discuss the question: "What is the difference between the Trenton Bear and the Elkton Tiger?" great hog.

If we insert an article which pleases the ladies, the men become jealous, and vice versa.

If we attend church they say its all Next week they will tackle the great question: "Do Bustles Bust."-Bor-der Minstrel.

Nothing steals over a man, when he lies down at night to sluinber, with more unrest than a bed-bug, except a consciousness of having in his pants pocket two dollars which justly ba-longs to a newspaper man.—Gussow

A girl, went into a dentist's office A girl, went late a dentist sollies the other day to have a tooth pulled. The dentist gouged around in the tooth and remarked "it's all holiow." "Yes, that's what I'll be when you are pulling it," replied the trembling beauty."—Glasgow Times.

When jurymen hang they don't go to heaven like the other fe lows. They simply go out and get a drink.—State-Journal. A correspondent when ordered to

A correspondent when ordered to attempt the securing of Hayes' message before it went to Congress, refused, saying, "he might nuder certain circumstances, he persuaded to rob a bank, but he would be dashed it he ever expected to commit petitiateeny.—Sunday Argus.

An exchange says; "Teach the children to darn." Experience has demonstrated this to be a work of supercrogration, as far as regards boys, as they generally know how to darn everything about the house by the time they learn to talk.—Sunday Argus. Argus. A young lady on meeting a hand-

A young lady on meeting a hand-some young man remarked that she had often heard of his wit. He straightway asked her if she would take a joke. She answered, "Yes." He quickly replied, "I'm a joke." To be continued.—Sunday Times.

Ing much at the beer saloon; it don't look right.

Don't give the merchant or printer a chance to dun you; prompt payment makes independent men.

Don't leave to memory what should be written: it makes lawauits.

Among the Christmas advertising pletures, we see one representing Santa Claus crowding a cottage or. gam into a lady's atocking. We presume the owner to be a Chicago girl, as that is about their size, we are informed.—Sunday Times.

resterday morning the Loafors' Club met promptly at nine o'clock, at usual waits for the sheriff.

Decent, substantial clothing for your children, makes them think better of themselves; and keep the doctor away.

Teach your boys to look up and forward, never backward.

Cultivate the habit of giving, but deut, in whom we have placed confidence, and of whom we though better things, has gone to work in assisting in putting up ice, therefore, be it Resolved. That the Secretary of this clob be requested to notify said President to be present at the next meeting of the club to answer said charge.

Loafer Eph objected to the adoption of the resolution on the grounds that although the worthy President was at work it was for a short time and for the benefit of the club. Warming with his theme and with thoughts of his argument he continued: "Why Mr. President, suppose next summer should be as warm at last, what would this club do without ice to mix with their mint? It is true, sir that I consider the mixing of ice with water a waste of raw matetrue, sir that I consider the mixing of ice with water a waste of raw materials, but sir, as a representative club of Todd county, we want Todd ies, how are we to make them palatable in the Summer without ite." At this point the cheering and cries of thear! hear! from loafers Dave, Jim and Frank, so drowned the voice of the speaker he was compelled to desist. The eloquence and logic of the speaker had such an effect upon the members of the club that Secretary George withdrew his resolution, and in withdrawing it, by mistake, withdrew a fifty-cent piece from his drew a fifty-cent piece from his pocket, whereupon the members rose

Register. A Beautiful Thought.

When the summer of youth is slowly wasting away on the nightfall of age, and the shadow of the path becomes deeper, and life wears to its fiant refusal and the flourish of a pistol was the answer The driver jumped on the wheel, seized Moody by the collar, dragged him out through a window and threw him to the ground so torcibly that his arm was broken. The passengers helped to the him with a rope, and he was stowed away with the trunks behind, along with the body of Freid, after which the journey was continued. rough places of wayfaring will have been worn and smoothed away in the twilight of life, and many dark spots we have passed through will grow brighter and more beautiful Happy indeed are those whose intercourse

> Try it, for it never disappoints, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Per bottle, 25 cents.

ionist, has been sentenced to the Penitentiary, for five years.

Marian Johnson while stealing a ide on a freight train at Muncey Ind. ell between the cars and was ground